

HORTON TEACHER WORKSHOP 2017

9:00am - 10:20am Horton Technique Class

Instructors will observe Horton technique class with pre-professional students and Jr. Division students. Note taking is encouraged.

10:30am – 11:50am Horton Technique Class

Instructors will observe Horton technique class with pre-professional students and Jr. Division students. Note taking is encouraged.

12:00pm - 1:30pm Horton Technique Class (optional)

Instructors will observe a Horton technique class with pre-professional students and Jr. Division students. Note taking is encouraged.

1:30pm - 2:15pm Horton Teacher Class with Ana Marie Forsythe

2:30pm – 4:30pm Study Session

Session I

An intensive discussion of the following:

- The warm-up
- Beginning Horton Studies
- Teaching methods
- Making corrections
- Trouble areas
- Counts and shapes
- Anatomy lectures taught by Rebecca Dietzel, a leading authority on anatomy for dancers.
- Question and Answer

Session II*

An intensive discussion of the following:

- Advance Horton Studies
- Deep Floor Vocabulary
- Dimensional Tonus
- Lateral Side Twist Falls
- Anatomy lectures taught by Rebecca Dietzel, a leading authority on anatomy for dancers.
- Percussion lectures
- Question and Answer

In addition to the items listed above, the workshop will also feature:

- Advanced Ailey School student demonstrators.
- A video presentation of Genius on the Wrong Coast.
- Guest speakers – includes former principal dancers of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater
- Free classes at the Ailey Extension
- Anatomy Session

Session II is for teachers who have participated in a minimum of one previous pedagogy workshop with Ana Marie Forsythe and have a minimum of three-year experience teaching the Horton technique.